

Bodmin Anglers Association Constitution & Rules

Rules

1. The name of the Association shall be known as Bodmin Anglers Association.
2. The object of the Association shall be to promote and provide reasonably priced fishing facilities for its members and short term ticket holders.
3. The officers shall consist of: Chairman, Vice Chairman, Hon. Treasurer, Hon. Secretary, Assistant Secretary and committee of ten members in addition to the above. Three members of the committee will retire each year, but if eligible may be re-elected.
4. A quorum of the Bodmin Anglers Association shall consist of six members and three officers.
5. Only members who permanently reside in Cornwall may become a club official or committee member.
6. Bodmin Anglers Association officials and committee members may not become committee members or officials of other game fishing clubs with water on the river Camel.
7. The committee shall have power to make such by-laws and regulations as they may deem advisable in the interests of the Association.
8. The committee shall have authority to value and purchase water for the Bodmin Anglers Association without having to obtain a professional valuation.
9. The Assets of the Bodmin Anglers Association shall be vested in the committee as trustees for the members. Neither the Committee nor any officer or member shall at any time incur or permit to be incurred any liability which exceeds the total assets of the Association at that time. Assets for the purpose of this rule are defined as being the balance standing to the credit of the Association bank account, plus the cash in hand but less known payment liabilities.. Officers and Trustees shall be liable only to the extent of the assets vested in them for the benefit of the Association and not further or otherwise.
10. Bodmin Anglers Association Assets shall be recorded on the accounts and made available only to committee members and authorised persons.
11. All monies collected shall be immediately banked in the name of the Bodmin Anglers Association.
12. Auditors shall be appointed annually.
13. The secretary shall be granted expenses of £400.
14. A minute book shall be kept by the Hon. Sec. in which shall be recorded the business transacted at each committee meeting and a record enumerated in the minutes of the Hon. Treasures report as to the financial position of the Association.

15. Cheques shall be authorised by any two signatures from Hon. Treasurer, Hon Sec. and any two nominated officials.
16. The Hon. Treasurer may spend up to £200 without it being authorised by the committee or £1000 with the agreement of the Chairman, Treasurer and one other committee member. All other expenditure must be authorised by the committee.
17. A/ The Bodmin Anglers Association shall not be dissolved so long as ten members are willing to continue it.
B/ Should it be dissolved, any assets, after discharge of all liabilities shall be donated to any registered charity, other such organisation or shared among the remaining members as the majority of members may deem appropriate.

Meetings

18. Meetings shall be arranged as instructed by the chairman and Hon. Sec. Members will be notified by circular, e-mail or telephone.
19. Seven days clear notice will be given for all meetings, unless it is an emergency.
20. An extraordinary meeting may be demanded by any seven members by notifying the chairman in writing as to the reason for calling the meeting after giving fourteen days clear notice.
21. The annual general meeting shall take place on a convenient date in February, where all officers will be elected.
22. All proposals for the AGM must be submitted before the 31st January.
23. Each member may bring a friend to an AGM without the power to vote.
24. If the AGM should authorise any change to the rules, the Hon. Sec. will inform the membership by newsletter and or the website.
