Access

Polbrock Bridge, Grogley Halt Bridge and the Camel Trail

Parking

Parking at Grogley Halt and Polbrock Bridge

Restrictions

All beats on the left hand* or West bank are artificial baits only.

The right hand* or East bank is any method before December the first.

From the first of December until the fifteenth of December it's artificial baits only until 1200hrs and any method from 1200hrs until night fall

Terrain

The left hand* bank from Polbrock Bridge is almost virgin territory for most of it's length and the banks are fairly high

The left hand* bank above Grogley is open fields for the first half and rough ground for the further pools as far as the Ruthern stream again with high banks.

The right hand bank is mostly open fields but the banks are "well bushed" and high in places.

 right hand and left hand are from the point of view of facing downstream with the flow of the river*
